Confidentiality of Student Records:

Stewart School provides privacy and protection concerning information in student files in accordance with The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99). This is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education.

FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are "eligible students."

- Parents or eligible students have the right to inspect and review the student's education records maintained by the school. Schools are not required to provide copies of records unless, for reasons such as great distance, it is impossible for parents or eligible students to review the records. Schools may charge a fee for copies (Stewart School charges a $10 fee).
- Parents or eligible students have the right to request that school correct records, which they believe to be inaccurate or misleading. If the school decides not to amend the record, the parent or eligible student then has the right to a formal hearing. After the hearing, if the school still decides not to amend the record, the parent or eligible student has the right to place a statement with the record setting forth his or her view about the contested information.
- Generally, Stewart School must have written permission from the parent or eligible student in order to release any information from a student's education record. However, FERPA allows schools to disclose those records, without consent, to the following parties or under the following conditions (34 CFR § 99.31):
 - School officials with legitimate educational interest;
 - Other schools to which a student is transferring;
 - Specified officials for audit or evaluation purposes;
 - Appropriate parties in connection with financial aid to a student;
 - Organizations conducting certain studies for or on behalf of the school;
 - Accrediting organizations;

Esthetics services require good physical stamina to allow standing for long periods of time. Use of hands and arms are necessary with precise finger dexterity essential. Use of sight and hearing senses are required. A 10-25 lb. lifting requirement is necessary for moving light equipment and supplies.

Massage Therapy requires a strong physical stamina and ability to concentrate. Use of hands, arms and fingers are necessary for massage manipulations. Massage Therapists must develop hand and arm strength, as well as upper body and leg muscles to exercise good body mechanics to withstand the demand of massaging muscle tissue. Therapists must be able to stand for 1-2-hour increments of time. Light lifting (up to 25 lbs.) is required to assist clients on and off the massage table.

Nail Technicians must be able to sit and bend forward easily and for long periods of time. Use of hands and arms are necessary with precise finger dexterity essential. Use of sight and hearing senses are required. A 10-25 lbs. lifting requirement is necessary for moving light equipment and supplies.

Safety Requirements: Cosmetology, Esthetics and Nail Technicians are considered a "personal service worker" occupation for OSHA. Therefore, they both must adhere to the safety regulations of the Center for Disease Control. Sterilization and sanitation of work area and equipment, plus knowledge of disease prevention that affects the personal service worker in today's society are necessary. Cosmetologists, Estheticians and Nail Technicians are required to wash hands before attending clients and to wear disposable gloves for certain services or particularly when potential of blood borne pathogens may be present. Contaminated trash and "sharps" must be disposed of properly. Sanitation and safety laws governing cosmetology in South Dakota can be found in South Dakota Codified Law, Chapter 36-15 and South Dakota Administrative Rule, Rule 20:42. Also, possible allergies resulting from exposure to hair products and chemicals that a cosmetologist is exposed to should be considered.

Massage Therapists must be aware of the contraindications of massage that could pose a threat to the client. The therapist must also implement correct body mechanics to withstand the energy output and physical drain on the body worker. Sanitation of work area and equipment, as well as health issues and knowledge of disease prevention that affect the personal service worker, is addressed in detail in the program.

Licensing Fees and Requirements: The South Dakota Cosmetology Commission licenses South Dakota Cosmetology Arts and Science practitioners, Estheticians and Nail Technicians. South Dakota Cosmetology, Esthetic and Nail Technology graduates must pass a national cosmetology licensing examination. In South Dakota students are allowed to take the licensing exam while still enrolled in school. At Stewart School we encourage our students to wait to test until successfully passing their Senior Exams. The fee to take the exam is $80.00 and is the full responsibility of the student. Students who successfully pass the state exam will be issued a Cosmetology, Esthetic or Nail Technology License. The renewal fee for licensure in the state of South Dakota is annually on their birthdate at the cost of $25.00. Information on other states licensing requirements can be obtained from the school director. These licensing fees are applicable for South Dakota Licensing only. Should the student seek licensure in any other state, the student must adhere to that state's licensing requirements and the cost of the out-of-state licensure and testing is the student's responsibility.

Massage Therapists who wish to work in the state of South Dakota must graduate from a Massage School recognized by the South Dakota Board of Massage Therapy and pass a National Exam (MBLEx). The cost of the exam is $195.00. The cost of the exam is $195.00 and is the responsibility of the student. Students are encouraged to register for the test before they complete the program. Students who successfully pass the national exam may then apply for licensure in any state. The license application fee for South Dakota is $165. Renewal of a Massage Therapy license in the state of South Dakota is $65 annually. Licensed Massage Therapist are required to complete eight hours of Continuing Education biannually.
